Mission Safari weaves biodiversity and endangered species content into a multi-layered wildlife adventure. The bilingual journey culminates in a Secret Safari where visitors search for animal-companions hidden in the maze. For zoos, visitors are then directed where to meet each animal in person.

"We're thrilled with Mission Safari and the glowing feedback from kids and adults!"

- Lehigh Valley Zoo

"My grandchildren were enthralled with the endangered species maze. After an hour, they still hadn't tired of the journey. What a wonderful way to combine fun and education!"

- Barbara Wood, grandmother of girls aged 4 and 7

Mission Safari engages up to 200 visitors at a time, many hundreds per hour, and has something for everyone. 15 interactives and photo-ops add intrigue around each corner. The biodiversity challenge and vibrant species panels encourage meaningful experiences with the conservation content and promote personal connections with local and exotic species.
